Are you skilled in Final Cut Pro?? - We need YOU!!

Want to have a voice in your community? Why not harness the power of television and be a part of producing a unique show that will air in over 68,000 households locally every week?!

The Patricia Henley Foundation is excited to announce their new FREE fall 2009 Teen Television show in conjunction with the Santa Barbara Channels. This exciting, fast-paced 30 minute weekly show will be produced for and by teens. The topics and segment possibilities are endless and unlimited – dictated by your imagination and creativity! A team of teen reporters will cover area junior and senior high school performing arts, sports, science, environment, mock trial, trends, fads, cell talk, student created videos, movie reviews and hot issues. Whether you have experience with video production or want to learn from scratch about interviewing, writing, camera and sound operation, editing, graphics and more, YOU want to be one of the Team of 20 who will create this new television show. Students ages 13-19 will be training in the amazing new studios of Channels 17 & 21 and creating an upbeat teen show reflecting the lifestyles, issues, creative expression and voices of teens.
